

PRIMUS Field Cup Set

Feeding the Eyes

Swedish stove specialist, Primus, presents a perfectly formed and convenient cup set for outdoor “Haute Cuisine”. Scandinavian designer Nicholai Wiig Hansen created this new Field Cup Set, which includes two cups in a classical oval Kåsa form, plus knife, fork, and spoon. A great addition for all lovers of the Outdoors – culinary enjoyment with great looks.

After the huge success of their Meal Set, Primus is expanding their range with the new Field Cup Set. Once again, the Swedish outdoor specialist proves how to dine in style out in the wilderness. Comprising a small cup (200 ml / 6.76 oz volume), a big cup (400 ml / 13.53 oz volume) with lid plus knife, fork and spoon, the Field Cup Set is a visual highlight. With this set, Scandinavian Designer Nicholai Wiig Hansen has created a modern interpretation of the classical Swedish cup, called Kåsa.

The cutlery is both stable and elegant and can be stored in the cup. Primus uses a stable and hygienic polypropylene, safe for use in the microwave as well as dishwasher. The Field Cup Set weighs 156 g / 5.5 oz, retails at 17.95 Euros* (suggested retail price), and is available in classic colours red, black, dark green plus six bright and breezy fashion colours. True eyecatchers – in store as much as in open nature. For more information please visit the website www.primus.se
